First calls, and who handles what.

We are sorry you are reading this. Take your time, because nothing here has to be done today, and you do not have to do it alone.

If one of us is in the hospital, turn to page 73. If one of us has died, turn to page 72.

Please call these people first, in this order

The original will is kept at the other legal papers are listed on page 51

PLEASE WAIT ON THESE FOR NOW

- Closing bank accounts or credit cards, because automatic payments and other bills can still depend on them.
- Giving away, selling, or throwing out belongings or papers, until the will has been read and the person named in it has said what to do.
- Signing anything that sells a home or a car.

Questions about the will or the law can go to our attorney or to the court that handles wills in our county.
